

Ladies Studying Jesus Homework – Vol. 8 #4.1

Early in the Upper Room Discourse Jesus will give a “New Commandment” to His disciples, “That ye love one another, as I have loved you.”

1. Explain how this is different from the commandment to love your neighbor as yourself (Matthew 22:34-40).
2. Look at the “Love Chapter”, I Corinthians 13. Rewrite I Corinthians 13:1-8, 13 in your everyday language.
3. Give three practical examples how the early church might have demonstrated loving other believers.
4. Give five practical examples how we can demonstrate loving other believers within our church, family or among our friends.

Ladies Studying Jesus Homework – Vol. 8 #4.2

Let’s take a look at Peter. In the Upper Room, he had a hard time listening and submitting to the plan of Christ. Look at these passages involving Peter. Matthew 16:21-28; Matthew 17:1-6; John 21:20-22; Acts 10:9-11:18

- 1) Give a brief overview of each passage.
- 2) Give the instruction of God/Christ and how Peter reacted in each setting.

What can you learn from this pattern found in Peter’s character? Look for scripture that would support how God would desire us to respond to His leading.

Ladies Studying Jesus Homework – Vol. 8 #4.3

Take this brief quiz. During the week find the correct answer and Bible reference of each question. Write 4-5 sentences about the significance of the Lord’s Supper to you personally.

The Lord’s Supper Quiz

True or False 1. Jesus Himself led the instigation of the Lord’s Supper with explanation and participation in both elements.

True or False 2. The instigation of the Lord’s Supper is given in all four gospels.

_____ 3. Paul shares the instigation of the Lord’s Supper in I Corinthians 11. Who related to Paul the events of the Lord’s Supper from the Upper Room?

_____ 4. Which is a better translation concerning the body of Christ, I Corinthians saying “broken for you” or Luke saying, “given for you”. I Corinthians _____ Luke _____ Does not Matter

_____ 5. In all accounts of the Lord’s Supper the word “wine” is never mentioned. What is the content of the cup called in this event of Christ?